

“Women Vote,” A Get-Out-The-Vote Event— Call for MONOLOGUE Submissions

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

A coalition of community organizations is seeking monologue submissions for “Women Vote,” a series of monologues by women about the many reasons why we vote.

Women are invited to share real-life anecdotes and monologues about love, loss, family, food, work, culture, education—anything that is part of their experience as women. Tell us about why you vote and what is important to you when you vote.

The production is open to women. Selected women will present their pieces at the YWCA of Greater Harrisburg, located at 1101 Market Street, Harrisburg. Women who do not wish to perform may also be paired with another woman of similar background. Submissions can be up to five minutes long. The total runtime will be about 60 minutes.

All submissions should be sent to rogetteharris@gmail.com. The timeline for the project is as follows:

Submissions Due: Wednesday, June 29

Acceptances Emailed By: Wednesday, July 27

Performance Date: Thursday, September 15
